For Immediate Release

One Week Until The Quest! Celebrating individuals of all abilities.

Kansas City, MO (October 11, 2014) The sixth annual Ability Quest welcomes individuals of all abilities to participate in a two mile fun run or one mile walk, stroll or roll. It will be located on an accessible course at Berkley Riverfront Park in Kansas City, MO. We are thrilled to offer Rehab Reunion this year immediately following Ability Quest! Anyone who has been a part of RIKC services in the past or present is welcome to join us in the celebration of accomplishments, memories and friendship.

All proceeds from Ability Quest go to the Rehabilitation Institute of Kansas City (RIKC). RIKC offers a broad array of medical and employment programs, assisting individuals with physical, developmental and cognitive disabilities resume and maintain independent lives in the home, school, work, and community.

Participants at Ability Quest and Rehab Reunion include people of all abilities! To help with the celebration, Fox 4's Abby Eden will emcee. Chris Cakes will also be at the event serving their delicious pancakes.

This year's Ability Quest and Rehab Reunion is sure to be a great time with a variety of RIKC alumni and staff coming together to support a great cause!
